

Dearest Marie.

Many thanks for your two letters. Ethel Barroll's was awfully nice, and I also had one from Frances

Deave.

The other day when you took the presents home I meant you to take them to 105 - not to Chesterton!

I will try and manage without them, however, if you will bring the following up with you. - The pillow and cases in the large pink box - also the smaller pink box containing pink shawl + 1 sweater -

(Two boxes in all.) Please please don't forget these as I want him to wear the little sweater Thursday.

I have decided to sell Bunny if possible and I think the best way is to send him up to Vic's as soon as possible. Vic is to be in town with his truck on Saturday afternoon and could take him out there if you will arrange to have him come up ^{on} either Friday afternoon or Saturday morning boat. Charlie Hechter will send a boy to meet him at whichever boat you put him on and keep him until Vic calls - Don't send saddle etc - just halter, rope, and thin blanket. Thursday when you come up will be time enough to let Hechter know - Cousin Mary Keyser sent me the loveliest basket of pink roses today.

Am getting very thrilled over the prospect of Thursday. What time does your boat get in? Please come straight up here your loving wife -
